For all their physical differences, Henry and his clients, including Hudson, often had something major in common: They were gay, and had to keep their true identities hidden.

Phyllis Gates, 80, Sad Wife of Rock Hudson

The biggest shock that is covered in just a few sentences is that the man that Hudson thought was his birth father that abandoned the family the one he sent the money to all those years may not have actually been Rock's dad. As scientists and health care officials called for funding to combat the disease, they were largely ignored by President and his administration. Whole days would go by without a single customer.

Rock Hudson's secret

He died when I was just 1 year old, so I knew nothing about him before this book except that he was secretly gay and that he died of AIDS.
