- Luke 4:16–21 (Jesus' sermon in the synagogue)
- Luke 8:26–39 (Jesus' exorcism of an unclean spirit)
- Luke 10:1–20 (mission of the seventy)
- Luke 10:25–37 (parable of the Good Samaritan)
- Luke 15 (parables of the lost sheep, coin, and son)
- John 1:35–51 (call of Jesus' first disciples)
- John 20:19–31 (post-resurrection appearance of Jesus)

Read the book of Acts for a description of the missionary evangelism of the early church and the way that a vital church reaches out to new groups of people.

Assess Current Reality and Set Goals

First, assess the strengths and weaknesses of the current ministry efforts. How does your church presently reach out and welcome persons into the life of the church? How effective are these activities? What are the results?

The Vital Congregations web site www.unvitalcongregations.org provides helpful tips on goal setting. On this site you will find charts that guide you in assessing your historical data and setting future goals.

Goals can provide you with a process that helps you cultivate an evangelistic church culture. Here are some sample goals and measures for individuals, congregations, and pastors.
