Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND)

We offer Mock interviews with a trained and experienced interviewer so you can gain a true understanding of how a prospective employer sees YOU. Open to all Delegate numbers: 1-1 Platform: Skype for Business or zoom Groundwork London helps communities across the capital become greener, stronger and healthier.

Training

If you are a jobseeker, we aim to change your life through work and training opportunities, no matter what your background, educational level, previous experience or personal goals are. They exist to leverage the power of football and the Crystal Palace FC brand to change the lives of young people across South London, particularly the most hard-to-reach and hard-to-help.

Employment Support and Training Providers

If you are a resident with no recourse to public funds and struggling, or you know someone affected and struggling who needs support, you can contact us for an assessment and help in the following ways: Families with children Contact Family Services. Once accepted onto the programme, one of the Aim4Work Employment Advisers will get to know you as a client, draw up an action plan to get you into work, introduce you to interested employers, provide you with in-work support and be there to support you once in employment.

Asylum Seekers

Now that demand for new primary mainstream schools is diminishing, the Free Schools Programme should focus on ensuring that new special schools are created to meet SEND demand. They also usually lack the basic requirement to gain a tenancy in the private rented sector: a deposit. We heard from Lord Alf Dubs and listened to stories of hope and aspiration from some of our young Dubs child refugees.

Training

For years we have been moving around the builders! By 1995 it had been transformed into a training centre complete with classrooms, computer bays, spacious rooms for meetings and offices, a small canteen etc.

Adult and community education

This session was facilitated by the. Offers of support and donations from the local community are coordinated by us, our provider the Refugee Council and community group Lewisham Refugee Welcome to best meet the needs of the families.

Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND)

We match jobseekers to employers and vice versa, creating the perfect partnership and an effective employment solution. Migrant Help began in July 2019 to provide services under AIRE in London. Adult learning courses offer the chance to explore an interest, skill or hobby, develop specialist skills you can use in business, and are a way of meeting people and enjoying learning.

Training

These are steps in the right direction, but SEND demand shows no signs of abating and London local authorities are still overspending significantly on their high needs budgets. Lambeth attracts a high percentage of immigrants and refugees from Africa, Asia, Latin America and Eastern Europe, but it is one of the most disadvantaged areas of Britain.
