Office of Urban Development San Antonio

A member of the board must be a resident of the municipality and a real property owner.

Office of Urban Development San Antonio

To accomplish its mission, the authority works in close partnership with the Mayor, City Council, and a variety of public entities as well as downtown and neighborhood groups. This chapter may be cited as the Texas Urban Renewal Law. Construction was privately planned and financed, but the federal government encouraged it through tax relief for homeowners and government-guaranteed mortgages.

Urban planning

Each GLS programme is planned for and announced every six months. That determination must be based on a finding that at least 50 percent of the structures in the section are dilapidated beyond the point of feasible rehabilitation or are otherwise unfit for rehabilitation, and that there exist other blighting characteristics, such as overcrowding of structures on the land, mixed uses of structures, deficient streets, or deficiencies in public utilities or recreational and community facilities. But business owners protested that the figure was a pittance compared to the costs associated with moving, reopening, and lost revenue in the meantime.

Urban Local Government: Composition, Functions, Problems

Eventually, the government packaged a cluster of 54 state-owned shop-houses at the adjacent Clarke Quay as a single parcel for sale. The reclamation works also demonstrated the long-term approach to planning and development in Singapore with an emphasis on upfront infrastructure investments by the government.

Golden Urban Renewal Authority (GURA)

It is not intended to be an exhaustive or complete history of the subject. Once the urban renewal entity is created, it is responsible for filing the DCA approval form and certificate or similar statement with Treasury or the county clerk.
