Bartlett has presented papers at many conferences over the years and is expected to graduate in May of 2002. What justifications are given for the presence or absence of such nation in the narrations? Further, the movement would be subjected to a critical analysis in the lights of legitimation theory, specifically those of Max Weber, Pierre Bourdieu and Anthony Giddens. Another point of focus is the postwar dimension of colonial development principles that addressed new economic initiatives, the collectivization of providing public goods, and the debate over the Colonial Office's implementation of the rudiments of welfare state.
