Forty Hadith on the Islamic Personality

Indeed He is the One who hears and responds, and our final call is that all praise and thanks are for Allāh, Lord of all the worlds. So this hadīth is one of the ahadīth which are the pillars of correct understanding of our upright and true religion.

40 Hadīth on the Islāmīc Personality

So he the Muslim knows that envy is a dangerous disease and a harmful evil and therefore keeps away from it. This conflict will be intensified or diminished depending on the servant's closeness to or distance away from his Lord. O you who can only see the deficiencies of others, do you think that you are free from any mistakes?.

40 Hadīth on the Islāmīc Personality

Rather as is said: Seek an excuse for your brother 18.

Forty Hadith on the Islamic Personality

The sickness of tale-carrying only finds a place in hearts which are filled with love of this world, the hearts of those who use the Religion for lowly and despicable ends, and we seek Allāh's refuge from that! So do not treat him except with mildness and gentleness.
