Harpole, Northamptonshire

The top hatchment is for Anne Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas, 1 st Lord Graves, who died 11 September 1823 leaving Sir Thomas Hare a widower. Less than two years later, on 09 July 1874, William married Eliza Green who was born in Bardolph Fen in 1847 to William Green, farmer of 300 acres, and his wife Anne nee Booth. Two engines were built in the mid nineteenth century fairly close to one another.

Downham Market & Around

Lindsey was a prominent Royalist soldier during the Civil War, fighting at Edgehill where his father was killed and in other battles, being wounded at Naseby in 1645. Lolham Bridges, in this parish, are of great antiquity, and were originally designed to convey the Ermine Street over the fenny grounds adjacent to the river Welland.

Downham Market & Around

The Hall was occupied from 1842-1850 by Eliza, the widow of Robert Peel Esq and aunt to prime minister Sir Robert Peel 1788-1850 , who predeceased her by a few weeks in 1850. The city was destroyed and 15000 people died.

Northamptonshire

The earliest parts are Norman, such as at the base of the tower and along part of the north wall. James Williams Adams VC 1839-1903 was Rector of Wimbotsham and Vicar of Stow from 1895 to 1902.
