Funston writes that his line of Funstons originated near the town Pettigoe, in County Donegal, and that there were several other Funston families living in the immediate vicinity. The three headed to Fort Funston, in the Golden Gate Park National Recreation Area, which attracts a fun-loving crowd of hang gliders, hikers and off-leash dog walkers to its grassy bluffs that rise above the beach.

A Desperate Undertaking: Funston Captures Aguinaldo

Drawing on his experiences in Cuba, Funston launched a successful counterinsurgency campaign against the Filipino rebels, destroying supplies, building an efficient intelligence system, and conducting constant patrols.
