Socrates concludes his speech with this argument. Incorrect alignment causes distortion as. Advice is given again and again to eliminate subject-object duality, when the biggest duality of all, the duality between me and him, remains unfaced.

The Symposium: 178a

One may reconstruct this argument as follows: 1. Socrates remarks about how Phaedrus was caught up in the rhetorical force of Lysias speech, and yet it was precisely here that the speech was so obviously lacking 235a. We started Phaedrus over 20 years ago when we were fresh out of uni; we actually met studying oenology at Adelaide Uni! As a result he returned empty-handed and was later killed by the Maenads.

How to pronounce Phaedrus

This difficulty, Socrates suggests, can be resolved by combining the present argument with the one from opposites: the soul comes to life from out of death, so it cannot avoid existing after death as well. This list is arranged by which famous Phaedrus quotes have received the most votes, so only the greatest Phaedrus quotes are at the top of the list.

Plato: Phaedo

A passage in Homer, wherein Odysseus beats his breast and orders his heart to endure, strengthens this picture of the opposition between soul and bodily emotions. A first speech shows what love might mean to a soul limited to epithumiai.

Phaedrus (fabulist)

The earlier Euthyphro dialogue portrayed Socrates in discussion outside the court where he was to be prosecuted on charges of impiety and corrupting the youth; the Apology described his defense before the Athenian jury; and the Crito described a conversation during his subsequent imprisonment. Phaedrus picks up on Socrates' subtle sarcasm and asks Socrates not to joke.
