Their capacity for suffering and for enduring injustice and hardship disclosed their greatness and strength of spirit. It was thrown into the factory cauldron snatched directly from the plough.

Gosudarstvenny gimn SSSR

To sum up, we may say that menshevizing idealism is condemned by the orthodox, firstly as an idealistic tendency in that it offers too many hostages to Hegelianism, adopts the Hegelian dialectic without transforming it materialistically, separates form and content and misconceives the nature of matter; secondly, as a menshevizing tendency, in that it represents a revival of the traditions of the Second International, separates theory from practice, philosophy from politics, failing thereby to practise partisanship in philosophy, overestimates Plefianov, and underestimates the importance of Lenin in the development of philosophy.
