Robert Proctor — the University of Bath's research portal

Adolphe-Napoléon Didron, editor of the Annales archéologiques and propagandist for the Gothic Revival, tactlessly accused the Council of Civil Buildings, which was charged with the approval of all building plans in France, of irresponsibility. In 1642 came civil war between king and parliament. The last Roman soldiers left England in 407 AD.

Architecture

Thus, the end result shows the interiors of the spaces in the same way as they used to look; meanwhile the exteriors got such vaulted shapes that have not existed before. Between 1885 and 1888 he built a new tower, restored the chancel and added a new chapel of the Holy Cross, whereas in 1901-02 he restored in fact mostly rebuilt the nave and the main church facade.

Victorian architecture

Guests of a love to walk around the shipyard and observe some of the old ships that are still found in the area.

City of Bath

From 1904 electric trams ran in the streets of Bath but in 1939 they were replaced by buses.
