What is the Border Area Development Programme (BADP)?

The development of Nyasaland was likely adversely affected by the drain of workers to other countries. I need not enlarge upon the social and other evils and abuses which result from this. Production varied widely, and increasing amounts were used domestically, but at independence cotton was only the fourth most valuable export crop.

NYASALAND (ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT) (Hansard, 15 April 1954)

There is a diverse mix of cultures, with the Chewa being the most populous tribe.

Development Engineer

Many rural smallholdings were less than two hectares in the 1960s: by the mid-1980s the average plot was hardly more than one hectare. To the contrary, all across Christianised Africa, indigenous discourses remain just underneath the surface and in some cases wide in the open.

Progress on South Balochistan Development Programme reviewed

May I turn to the subject of agriculture? A force of 50 British volunteers and 100 Africans commanded by Captain L. From 1948, the programme of land acquisition intensified, assisted by an increased willingness of estate owners who saw no future in merely leasing land and marketing their tenants' crops.
