Anthology of Vedic Hymns (A Collection of Hymns from Four Vedas)

The first are from the Vedas themselves and these alone are intended to Support bear out the interpretation.

What is Vedic Sanskrit hymns?

That Agni's nourishment has shone brightly whom Medhyâtithi and Kanva have kindled on behalf of Rita. For we know indeed the terrible strength of the sons of Rudra, of the vigorous Maruts, the liberal givers of rain. XIII Those who glance forth like wives and yoke-fellows, the powerful sons of Rudra on their way, they, the Maruts, have indeed made heaven and earth to grow; they, the strong and wild, delight in the sacrifices.

Rig Veda

The other three Samhitas are considered to date from the time of the , approximately c. You who are propitiated either by sacrifices or from the prayers of the sage, hear the call, O Maruts! He is the Hotri; he who knows the office of a messenger, goes to and fro, knowing the ascent to heaven.

Vedic Hymns Translation by F. Max Müller

Whatever good thou wilt do to thy worshipper, O Agni, that work verily is thine, O Angiras.

Vedic mantra and Kirtan what's the difference?

O Maruts, you have valued the praises which our fathers have formerly recited to you; with the Maruts the victor is terrible in battle, with the Maruts alone the racer wins the prize. His worthy sons, Ruplal, Hansaraja, Gyanachand and Pyarelal founded, in honour of their revered father, the Ram Lal Kapur Trust donating a decent amount of money towards it for the publication of Vedic works. The minds of the people from whom the Vedas came were intent upon following principles, discovering principles.
