A Tale Told by an Idiot: Exclusive Extracts from Boris Johnson's Book on Shakespeare

As Lin gathers new and excited characters throughout his adventures, his focus is on rebuilding a friendship with Karla and helping her shed the weight of a husband with whom she has no true passion.

The Untold History of the United States by Oliver Stone

Even though I really enjoyed this book, the fact that it took me so long to finish it, doesn't let me to give it more than 4 stars. The story is told from the perspective of a generation of family and centers around a girl named Thula, who grows up to become a revolutionary.

Executive Orders

Now it will take our resolve to curtail excess and to shepherd these resources for important use far into the future. He lives in New Jersey with his wife and two sons. Thula is the kind of character that I look for in books.

But I still loved it. Boone Pickens, who started his own energy investing and drilling career in Texas in the 1950s. Photo by Larissa Zaidan for Bloomberg Businessweek, Brazil, 2021.

How Beautiful We Were by Imbolo Mbue

The work is physically demanding, requiring Rangel and his rangers to hack their way through the jungle and sleep in tents, among the poisonous snakes and the mosquitoes.

Three Cups of Tea

It was a mere trickle, representing a fraction of 1 percent of what ExxonMobil pumped on a daily basis. It is a novel about seeking identity, love, meaning, purpose, home, even the secret of life.
