Khorasan Province

Greater Khorasan is today sometimes used to distinguish the larger historical region from the modern of 1906—2004 , which roughly encompassed the western half of the historical Greater Khorasan. Khorasan was first established as an administrative division in the 6th-century approximately after 520 by the , during the reign of r. The term was also used from the late —especially in post-Mongol and times—to distinguish the region from neighbouring.
