In particular, we discuss Angela Carter's treatment of the 'Beauty and the Beast' story in 'The Tiger's Bride' 1979 , which emphasizes the protagonist's rationality, in relation to central ideas from the animal studies movement. My work has received recognition and attracted interest at an international scale, and I am often invited to discuss it through plenaries and keynote presentations at international conferences. It aims to provide participants with the necessary practical skills and knowledge to enable them to begin teaching and supporting learning at Newcastle University with confidence and enthusiasm.
