A: You essentially have five plans right now. Tim Knopp, R-Bend, says he's drafting a bill that offers a number of money saving options, but in the runup to an election, it's not clear Democrats will give his idea a hearing. When people say we need to be at 5 or 6 percent, well maybe, but the cost associated with that would cripple a lot of employers.

Oregon Supreme Court Ruling Has Major Implications for Retirement Security and Hybrid Plan Design

The pension system is one of the hottest public policy topics in Oregon, and Thomas agreed to share his thoughts on the state of the system and the board.

More pressing issues for Oregon than tax breaks

Do you have a PERS-related question for us? If you think this is utterly immoral and unConstitutional, then vote for me and other Libertarians who would pledge to abolish this fiscal abomination. Implications Oregon legislators have apparently now created a court-validated playbook for any state that has unfunded pensions and is using a hybrid design for current employees.

PERS: Questions for the outgoing chair of Oregonâ€™s public pension system

He knows how complicated this is. To make matters worse Oregon is taking funds from the EPSA created under SB 1049 to spend elsewhere in the budget.

Oregon Public Employees Retirement System

People like Mark Ganz, president and chief executive officer of Cambia Health; Andy Bryant, chairman of the board ... April 5, 2019 I am an English instructor at Mt. And we have to respond. A: Since 2003, the board is only five people, three of whom are non PERS beneficiaries.

PERS: 10 questions to the outgoing chair of Oregon's public pension system

It is true that policymakers need to be able to make adjustments as the world changes and challenges arise.

Oregon Public Employees Retirement System

The pension system's actuary has been to determine the financial implications. SB 1049 is a breach of contract, an illegal taking, and violates the Constitution.
