More than a chronological description of the evolution of American policy on the numerous complex issues of the Law of the Sea, the account is decidedly analytical.

New Security Challenges: The Adaptation of International Institutions

And I think it was helpful for all of us to understand exactly the role that the IAEA can play in regard to getting us information about what is happening on the ground in Iran. The TKI also edited a magazine in Danish, Vidue mod Øst Window towards the East. It is obvious that NATO, in its enlargement process, can learn from the lessons of the CoE.

NATO REVIEW 9506

Germany is now a leading democratic state and a great ally of the United States. A view that holds Russia is no threat today and a likely member of NATO in the future raises questions about why we should pursue expansion of the alliance today when it is so unsettling for Russia.

New Security Challenges: The Adaptation of International Institutions

. We had an OSCE Parliamentary Assembly annual meeting in Vienna. Also in Bulgaria, we had a chance to visit a Roma village.

Conclusions: Consequences of the Crisis of the Euro

I can tell you, the opposition party leader from Belarus was in this Capitol building just yesterday talking about the importance of support from places like the United States Congress. Through financing from the Danish Social Science Research Council he has directed research projects on the Amsterdam and Nice Treaties and he has recently received research money from the European Commission's Action Jean Monnet for a project on the Constitutional Treaty. Then I think about the landmark legislation that was passed in the Congress that deals with sanctions against human rights violators, first the Magnitsky sanctions and then the Global Magnitsky sanctions.
