Guide to Christian Iconography: Reading Images of Christian Saints & Stories

Among the damned, languishing in despair, torments and the horror of deformity and monstrosity, the sins of Christian society, lust, lying, adultery, avarice and pride, are punished with tortures, but so are the sins which harm the smooth running of the feudal society represented here by the counterfeit and the bad soldier. While one aspect of this emphasis was the decoration of the church in order to create a place whose beauty suited the beauty of God, another was the creation of images that were readily accessible to a populace that depended upon oral and visual texts.
