Perceptions of Heroes and Villains in European Literature

Parallels between The Deputy and Goethe's Faust consist in the bet between Faust and the devil as well as in a connection between Faust and the biblical Job. As in the case of Richard II, he who wins has the last word. But how can Hochhuth merge Faust, who in the course of the twentieth century had come to symbolise Nazism, with Job, who had become the symbol for Jewish suffering during the Holocaust? Systems Research and Behavioral Science 33:79-99.
