4 Tips for Having Parents & Stepparents at Your Wedding

But then again, you might not wear that incredible gown, eat that gorgeous triple-tiered butter cream wedding cake, or worst of all, share the happiest day of your life with the people who loved you first -- your family.

Dealing With Divorced Parents When Planning Your Wedding

You know your parents best, so only you can decide what your parents can and can't handle.

A Guide for Parents: Your Wedding Etiquette Questions, Answered

The most amazing part was that my step mother and mother became friends. Your daughter has not just her parents to handle through the process, but perhaps stepparents as well. Wedding Planning with Divorced Parents According to protocol, the parent with whom you have lived the longest issues the invites.
