Ichthyofauna diversity in the natural water bodies of Sagar, M. The present data when compared with the earlier data on ichthyofaunal diversity of Sagar lake recorded not more than a decade ago shows a tremendous decrease in the ichthyofaunal diversity of this lake. The introduction of exotic fish Oreochromis niloticus a decade ago was a great success as it grows widely, but it may be one of the several causes for dwindling of fish biodiversity of the lake.
