marriages, properly administering the sacraments, overseeing church social events, Sunday School, and catechism programs, preparing engaged couples for marriage, counseling those with problems, preparing denominational reports, attending denominational meetings, managing missionary and evangelistic programs, assembling and overseeing staff such as assistant ministers, youth group leaders, administrative staffs, and evangelism teams, organizing fund-raising drives, attending to community relations, facilities use, and building maintenance, encouraging, disciplining, and edifying parishioners, and establishing the vision and direction of the church.

Liturgical Colors

Since the time of the Cultural Revolution 1966-1976, these have proliferated. Yet the Christian truth does not need a professional class to protect it. Indeed, the church needs more full-time ministers.

Remember!

The qualifications of doing overseeing work or serving in 1 Tim. As the church, we should have an outward focus outward, not an inward focus.
