ECON102: Principles of Macroeconomics

Just remember one thing, whether it is the family or the government, everyone wants you to have a better future than today. What combination of goods and services will best fit their needs and wants, given the budget they have to spend? A low unemployment rate indicates that the economy is sufficient to generate new jobs as new people enter the workforce. Governments can use macroeconomic policy including monetary and fiscal policy to stabilize the economy.

Increasing the total amount of available productive resources is the focus of: a. macroeconomics b. fiscal policy c. monetary policy d. microeconomics

It is a simple case of demand and supply. These were a few macroeconomic variables which help us understand the state of the economy. Even with the limits of economic theory, it is important and worthwhile to follow the major macroeconomic indicators like GDP, inflation, and unemployment.
