The three little pigs stories to read

So he huffed and he puffed and he blew the house down! Then, they sang and danced and played together the rest of the day. The wolf chased them down the lane and he almost caught them. The way to get along in the world is to do things as well as you can.

The Three Little Pigs

Well, the wolf huffed and puffed but he could not blow down that brick house. The third little pig built his house out of bricks. So the little piggy put on the cover again, boiled the wolf up, and the three little pigs ate him for supper.

The three little pigs stories to read

Then the wolf showed his teeth and said: Then I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house down. He thought the pig would make a mighty fine meal and his mouth began to water.

The Three Little Pigs

When the wolf finally found the hole in the chimney he crawled down and KERSPLASH right into that kettle of water and that was the end of his troubles with the big bad wolf. So he stopped to rest and thought a bit.

The three little pigs stories to read

One night the big bad wolf, who dearly loved to eat fat little piggies, came along and saw the first little pig in his house of straw.

The Three Little Pigs

The second little pig built his house out of sticks. Not by the hairs on our chinny chin chin! Then, just as the wolf was coming down the chimney, the little piggy pulled off the lid, and plop! The wolf was greedy and he tried to catch both pigs at once, but he was too greedy and got neither! The little pig saw the wolf climb up on the roof and lit a roaring fire in the fireplace and placed on it a large kettle of water.

The Three Little Pigs

. The second little pig worked a little bit harder but he was somewhat lazy too and he built his house out of sticks. Once upon a time there were three little pigs and the time came for them to leave home and seek their fortunes.
