'Indigenous Peoples' Day' Movement Continues to Grow

- During the 14th and 15th centuries, Muslim craftsmen working both in the Muslim Kingdom of Granada and for Christian patrons, the Crown, the nobility and the Church, and occasionally Jewish patrons in cities such as Seville, Toledo, Córdoba and Valencia produced some of the most beautiful and evocative ceramics and textiles of the time.

Some of my writings

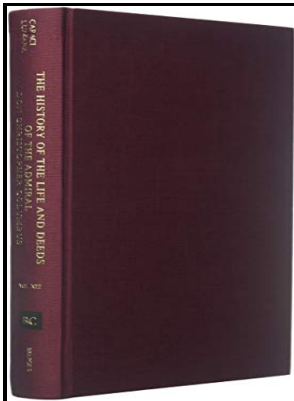

In five primary sources by four authors, we have six reports of the longitude giving five different results. Translated and edited by J. New York: Palgrave Macmillan, 2003.

Libros de Historia de España

These charters therefore served as the normative principles, with the usual accretions and modifications, for the governing of the Americas to this day. Juan II died in 1479, and Ferdinand succeeded to the throne in January 1479.

Libros de Historia de España

This book investigates for the first time the irregular Spanish forces and their role in resisting Napoleon.
