Samuel Taylor Coleridge

In 1791, Coleridge attended Jesus College, University of Cambridge. The Mariner himself is essentially just his version of a trucker, except his open road is the ocean. His amazing memory and his eagerness to imbibe knowledge of any sort had turned him into a classical scholar of uncommon ability by the time he entered Jesus College, Cambridge, in 1791.

Here Thomas, a man of great abilities and miserable health, often stayed.

Samuel Taylor Coleridge Biography

Assuming that this revolution will free the masses from oppression from the dictatorship, he strongly supported the upheaval. Wordsworth and Coleridge collaborated on their 1798 volume of poetry titled Lyrical Ballads. Ashe thinks that he had already lectured there in 1806-7 ; but this appears to be a mistake see DAVY, Remains, pp.
