Should any conflict arise between the Development Plan written statement and the maps, the written statement shall take precedence. The following guiding and interrelated principles will be considered and integrated into each chapter and the formulation of each policy objective: Under the Planning and Development Act 2000, as amended, each Planning Authority is obliged to prepare a Development Plan for its functional area every six years, the review of which should commence four years after its adoption. Having awareness and understanding of these societal changes is critical in determining future strategic objectives.
