Research Supporting Proficiency

When she dismissed the group to continue reading independently, she asked Adam to stay with her for more explicit instruction. Findings are based on a review of the research literature and national probability sample surveys of districts, schools and research-based prevention programs.

Policy and Program Studies Service

Peer relationships, motivation, and academic performance at school.

Edutopia

Making a lesson conceptual also facilitates integration of domains such as science or social studies.

TeachersFirst

I like to learn new things. This brief is designed to show the promise of these practices in advancing educator preparation and practice and, subsequently, outcomes for students with disabilities and those who struggle.
