Saramago's worldwide success Ensaio sobre a cegueira 1995; Blindness, 1997 was adapted to film 2008 by acclaimed Brazilian director Fernando Meirelles. The most hotly debated German-language book of 2006 was not a novel but rather Günter Grass's memoir Beim Häuten der Zwiebel, in which the 1999 Nobel Prize winner publicly acknowledged for the first time his membership, at the age of 17, in the Waffen-SS, the military combat organization of the dreaded Nazi Schutzstaffel. In La batalla del calentamiento 2006 , Marcelo Figueras addressed Argentina's recent past in a wildly imaginative allegorical tale about people in a small invented town.
