My America; A Poetry Anthology: Lee Bennett Hopkins; artist: Stephen Alcorn

If I were to help you create a guest list for a poetry collection in your home, I would suggest that you should invite Arnold Adoff, Hilaire Belloc, Sylvia Cassedy, John Ciardi, William Cole, Walter De La Mare, Nikki Giovanni, Karla Kuskin, Myra Cohn Livingston, Eve Merriam, A. Assuming that all the technical things are done right, I guess the hallmarks of a good poem are a combination of freshness of vision—seeing the world in a new or unusual way, and being able to convey that to the reader—as well as a fresh and unique use of language.

A Virtual Tour of America Begins with Poetry

Organized by geographic regions, these poems capture the unique flavor and character of each area of the United States.

Kids would like hearing poems that they can relate too and it would allow the class to learn more about our state. While there are many lovely editions of Mother Goose available, this is the collection I have come to depend on and if you share only one or need a perfect baby shower gift, this is the set I recommend. Maybe I can boil my answer down to sense and song, a helping of each.
