15 Poem and Song Pairings to Liven Up Your Poetry Unit

One shell hole for just the four of us. Many students are intimidated by poetry, so using music can help you ease them into poetry analysis as there's really no difference between looking at the lyrics of a song and the lines of a poem. Sporty people can be OK — Of course they can.

Natural, simple and unaffected, he is free from sham in feeling and artifice in expression. Fire and lamp, and meat and bread, And then to bed! He was a care-defying blade As ever Bacchus listed! Eighteen halls ere long did he hold, Wealth did he get, and gave to all, Stones and jewels and slim-flanked steeds, Rings he offered, and arm-rings shared. A 2nd edition followed in 1908 and a 3rd in 1910.

W.H. Davies

Th' Illissus, Tiber, Thames, an' Seine, Glide sweet in monie a tunefu' line: But Willie, set your fit to mine, An' cock your crest; We'll gar our streams an' burnies shine Up wi' the best! That wee bit heap o' leaves an' stibble, Has cost thee mony a weary nibble! Part of the appeal of such poems for noble male audiences was the thrill of the forbidden: crossing class boundaries, slumming. The fourth line adds an additional foot following the caesura, making it longer than the other three and marking the end of the stanza.

“I lay his poems on my lips and sip at leisure”

Chorus Oh, oh, oh it's a lovely war. I don't want a bayonet in my belly, I don't want my bollocks shot away. Rochester, NY; Woodbridge, Suffolk: Camden House.

Nibelungenlied

Ring Verse Three Rings for the Elven-kings under the sky, Seven for the Dwarf-lords in their halls of stone, Nine for Mortal Men doomed to die, One for the Dark Lord on his dark throne In the Land of Mordor where the Shadows lie. Zoom in to UCD in 1971, the testing ground.
