The Cold War Years. A Hot War in reality. Part 10.

We should stop doing what does not work and is not in our interests nor in the interests of either the Ukrainians or the Russians.

The 1950s

The war would end in a military stalemate. The shared objective is that the Ukraine become a secure, prosperous and constructive member of the world community.

9.4 The Cold War

Being replaced by SAU-152 self-propelled howitzers. The crew was rescued by a German merchant ship.

The Cold War and Ukraine

Meanwhile, ZIPRA remained active in the north and west, using bases in Zambia and Botswana, and were mainly supported by the Ndebele tribes. What we could have avoided was the noise made by a whole bunch of sailors coming and going throughout the day and night slamming stand-up and coffin lockers, laughing, and doing the things tired sailors do. Despite these efforts, a new movement was born.
