South Carolina Slaveholders: Genealogy and Records, A Through M

Around the little village of Livingston were clustered some of the largest and wealthiest estates of that time. The only image of the signatures previously available on the Internet is a spliced together and re-photographed list in two columns, but not the original two columns on each of two pages. Today, the loamy fine sand is ideal for growing peanut crops.

Order of the First Families of North Carolina listing of ancestors as of 10 Mar 2019.

Rice was a predominant cash crop in the Wilmington area.
