Abstract: In outlining the strategies of the Nordamerikanischer Saengerbund which thwarted the renewed attack on German-American patriotism, this article will seek to answer two interesting questions raised by these documents concerning the history of German Americans from 1917-46. It happened in Denmark as well, and a Danish historian documented the killing of German POWs during such clearance of land mines.

POW

After the Armistice of Cassibile, Italian soldiers and civilians in East Asia were taken as prisoners by Japanese armed forces and subject to the same conditions as other POWs.

Prisoner of war

Berga was the deadliest work detachment for American captives in Germany.
