The works, it is said, were continued with more or less activity according to the state of the altar-offerings and receipts of burial-fees ; which, with the ever- fruitM source of indulgences, were the great means by which such extensive and costly edifices were raised. Vele leden van de familie Chantrell kwamen in wonen en sterven. It was a pleasing sight at this point to observe the large number of labourers who had sacrificed their work to do honour to him, who had worked so hard and so long in former years for them, and the presence of several who had been pupils in St.

Guthred, who had been sold as a slave, was found in servitude at Whittingham, and crowned at Tyne- mouth shortly afterwards. Two ivory bodkins were found at the same time; they were exceedingly friable, either from age or having been subjected to the action of a fire before being deposited in the urns. She moved in a comparatively humble sphere of life, and was little known in literary circles ; but a few years ago the Queen was made acquainted with her merits, and Her Majesty, we understand, made her a handsome gift from the royal purse.
