 One reason was that Army was being paid Batta- special battle allowance to army personnel which was at the rate of half, equal or doubles the salary. Courage is always a virtue and to forget self and die in the service of others is an act with a value of its own, in-dependent of any analysis of the causes for which men suppose they are fighting There are many dimensions of thought about human behavior into which this narrative has not entered but for which it may provide a starting-point.

As the first batch of new officers, they also laid the foundation of an apolitical Army and sanctified the principle of the Army's subservience to civil control, in marked contrast to the emerging nations of Asia and Africa.

A matter of honour : Mason, Philip, 1906

It is based on well-known standard works, memoirs and regimental histories together with some personal knowledge of Indian peasants at home in their villages, and on friend-ships with many of their officers. This copy has no Dustwrapper. Sons of Moughal emperors wanted the Kingship for themselves soon and planned a revolt against their father and asked help from the foreign tradesmen.
