Notable early critics of Rawlinson included Jensen, who objected that the alleged Borsippa correspondences could not be meaningfully applied to the sequence of decorative colors found on the Khorsabad ziggurat 1890: 143; see below ; and Jastrow, who outrightly rejected any association of these colors with planets 1898: 618. Sources: For the late Babylonian period, a large account of tablets have been excavated in main cities of the southern Mesopotamia Babylon, Borsippa, Kiš, Nippur, Sippar, Ur, Uruk, etc. It is for this reason that the present study, by Terence Mitchell and Ann Searight, of stamp seal impressions on cuneiform tablets in the British Museum, is especially welcome.
