Aaron T. Beck Papers

Southwest of the town a tollhouse was built near the canal wharf probably soon after the opening of the canal in 1801. The remaining 52 percent are sourced from indigenous sources like biomass, hydropower and geothermal.

World Fibre Production

Impacts of global warming on human health. It is into palay and input trading, hog feeds, truck rental and a mini bank. It may not, however, be identifiable with the present Swan on the corner of St.

Handbook of Natural Fibres

The site at the end of Derby Street continued to be used as an overflow smithfield and also as a fairground and a venue for travelling theatrical companies until the earlier 1920s when the Memorial Clock Tower was built there.

World Fibre Production

Resource Speaker, Globalization and Its Impact on Cooperatives, Northwestern League of Cooperatives Annual Congress and Forum, 4-7 June 2004. Central to the branding achievement is a system-wide logo and common print visuals. Sponsored by the Public Service-International.

The business was bought by James Badnall's son Joseph, on whose death in 1830 it passed to his sister Ann.

Natural fiber Research Papers

The LondonManchester mailcoach route established in 1785, however, went to Leek via Ashbourne, while by 1803 Pickfords' wagons between London and Manchester also used that route or went via Buxton. He stated that his bailiffs would exact from the men of the manor suit at the mill on behalf of the monks and the customary work on the mill and its pool. It was linked with the Buxton road by the later 18th century, apparently along the line of what was called Osborne Street by 1838.

Hennessey (Kathleen) papers

Park Road running from Ball Haye Road to Abbey Green Road across the Ball Haye estate was built in 1854.
