Alford gives a revised text, and a critical digest of various readings entirely rewritten in the 4th ed. The Historical portion of the New Testament consists of two parts, the Gospels, and the Book of Acts. Revealed religion discloses the errors of all other creeds, while at the same time it brings out any remnant of truth in them, which in turn may become a point of connection for the kingdom of God.

the commentaries of caesar

The Alexandrian Jews, following in this respect Grecian ideas, were wont to regard inspiration as something magical,—the individuality of man being for the time depressed and silenced: while the Hebrews understood it that human individuality was only humbled, but thereby also exalted and purified, and thus set free and quickened.
