Churchman's Ordo Kalender: to be used with the 1928 Book of Common Prayer and the American and Anglican Missals

He has pastored churches in Oklahoma, New Jersey and Texas.

Calendar

Each of the 13 months had 28 days and exactly four weeks, and each started on a Monday. But because this made three 31-day months July, August, and September appear in succession, Augustus is supposed to have reduced September to 30 days, added a day to October to make it 31 days, reduced November by one day to 30 days, and increased December from 30 to 31 days, giving the months the lengths they have today.

The Origins of the Church Calendar

Woodbridge, CT Research Publications, Inc. The Roman republican calendar was basically a lunar reckoning and became increasingly out of phase with the as time passed.
