Karya Ulama Indonesia Gerbang Kearifan

In this work, the heart of the believer is described as a circle of seven castles, each corresponding to a certain spiritual virtue, where knowledge of God is at the center, and Satan lies outside, trying to gain access by seducing the believer to abandon his practices and virtues.

Karya Ulama Indonesia Gerbang Kearifan

Not only the Aristotelian conception of God as thought thinking thought does not absolve the philosophers from introducing plurality in the First Principle, but further lends them into many more difficulties with regard to their emanationistic world-view.

From the Apparent to Absolute Being

Encyclopaedia of Islam, Leiden, 1913-34, Vol. Ibn Sabʿīn traveled extensively after his departure from Murcia, following the death of the ruler Ibn Hūd in 1237—38. How does a composite thing such as a body then come into existence? By the end of the period he had advanced far along the mystic path and was convinced that it was the highest way of life for man.

From the Apparent to Absolute Being

Now, strictly speaking, all the existents in the universe are characterized by composition and only the First Principle, i. It makes circumstances congenial for the actualization of the will. His strictures against this grand cosmological construction made out of so many various foreign imported ideas are the strongest and the bitterest of all others that may be found in the entire Tahāfūt.

History of Muslim Philosophy: Al

The champions of the modern movement of religious empiricism, on the one hand, and that of logical positivism, on the other, paradoxical though it may seem, would equally find comfort in his works.

From the Apparent to Absolute Being

He desires intercourse with His creatures and makes it possible for them to enter into fellowship with Himself through prayer and contemplation and, above all, through the gift of mystical gnosis. But all was not lost: he had some assurances that he could be delivered from this state of despair through the Sufi way. Wealth can be spent on the poor and the needy to alleviate their sufferings, but can also lead directly to sins or can supply means for them.

History of Muslim Philosophy: Al

The relation between fire and burning is not a necessary relation, for it does not belong to the realm of necessity but to that of possibility such as may happen or may not happen depending on the will of God.

Hence it starts its spiritual journey back to the original source traversing through the various stages of the intelligences of the spheres. So he ought to be told to eradicate these tendencies. On the other hand, he was the most earnest seeker after truth.
