Scripture Politics: Ulster Presbyterians and Irish radicalism in the late eighteenth century Oxford, 1998 McBride, Ian. It is, however, a different matter to exclude the strong possibility that there were conventions on the relationships between powerful kings and those who were subordinated to them. Among its early students were Clifford Holliday, the later Lord Holford himself a South African by birth, and Linton Bogle the town planner of Lucknow.

British Consciousness and Identity: The Making of Britain, 1533

His diagonally-orientated grid-iron layout radiated outwards from the station on either side of a 2000-foot wide railway reservation. The point is argued vigorously in R.

British nationalism

This is itself a demonstration of effective royal power. After driving the French from India, the British reshaped the Presidency towns of Bombay, Calcutta and Madras, consolidating white settlement.
