Khrushchev's Dishonest Attack on the "Stalin Cult" (Role of Leaders in History)

He used to receive peasant delegates and often spoke at factory gatherings.

Fear and Belief in the USSR's Response to Arrest, 1935

He always was close to the people. This, too, should be corrected. The OGPU is four years behind in this matter.

Madkhal minhājī li

Engels and I first joined the secret society of Communists on the condition that everything making for superstitious worship of authority would be deleted from its statute. But, comrades, this is completely untrue. .

7 Atrocities Soviet Dictator Joseph Stalin Committed

When they reappeared they looked haggard and older. His proposal after the 19th Congress to elect 25 persons to the Central Committee Presidium was aimed at the removal of old Politburo members and at bringing in less experienced persons so that these would extol him in all sorts of ways. Even after the end of the war a Congress was not convened for over seven years.

Madkhal minhājī li

When Stalin died in 1953 we closed the door tight and danced with joy. The Party had to fight those who tried to lead the country away from the correct Leninist path.

Khrushchev's Dishonest Attack on the "Stalin Cult" (Role of Leaders in History)

Lenin directed to the Central Committee's Political Bureau in October 1920. Long live the victorious banner of our Party — Leninism! If you begin to lie and to testify falsely, blame yourself. Lenin taught that the party's strength depends on its indissoluble unity with the masses, on the fact that behind the party follows the people -- workers, peasants and intelligentsia.

Fear and Belief in the USSR's Response to Arrest, 1935

Lassalle subsequently did quite the opposite. At present, after a sufficiently long historical period, we can speak about the fight with the Trotskyites with complete calm and can analyze this matter with sufficient objectivity.

Khrushchev's Dishonest Attack on the "Stalin Cult" (And the Role of Leaders in History)

Many facts from the prewar period clearly showed that Hitler was going all out to begin a war against the Soviet state, and that he had concentrated large armed units, together with armored units, near the Soviet borders. It was because Stalin, despite evident facts, thought that the war had not yet started, that this was only a provocative action on the part of several undisciplined sections of the German Army, and that our reaction might serve as a reason for the Germans to begin the war. Had I been guilty of only one hundredth of the crimes with which I am charged, I would not have dared to send you this pre-execution declaration.
