Outline of The Federalist

The Senate, it is observed, is to have concurrent authority with the Executive in the formation of treaties and in the appointment to offices: if, say the objectors, to these prerogatives is added that of deciding in all cases of impeachment, it will give a decided predominancy to senatorial influence.

Federalist Papers Index

So the citation would look like: Author or editor, Year of publication. As in the business of appointments the executive will be the principal agent, the provisions relating to it will most properly be discussed in the examination of that department.

Federalist No. 66

He argued that stability, liberty, and justice were more likely to be achieved in a large area with a numerous and population.

Federalist Papers · George Washington's Mount Vernon

Further, by the time New York came to a vote, ten states had already ratified the Constitution and it had thus already passed—only nine states had to ratify it for the new government to be established among them; the ratification by Virginia, the tenth state, placed pressure on New York to ratify.
