Rescripting Life: EMDR Leads the Way

Doig and Kennedy moved back to London in 1989. She works at the intersection of art, science, experience and technology to catalyze social and systemic change through inclusive, transdisciplinary collaborations for the regeneration of our planet and culture.

Gareth Jones lives in Wales, though he spent many years living and working in North Norfolk, and is very fond of, and familiar with the area. Before settling in Nova Scotia, I lived 10 years in Florence, Italy, where I studied traditional academic painting based on representing the world through the visual impression. Evocations, a collection of works by acclaimed artist Lydia Bodnar-Balahutrak, presents thought-provoking interpretations of the Holodomor and other dark periods in Ukraine's history.

The scene has changed out of all recognition between the 1970s and now but what has not changed, is that as the centres of the Welsh Language are still scattered and often in rural areas, touring is the only option for any company working in the language and this of course has a huge impact on how shows are staged. Best listened to as a piece with different movements, has the internal coherence to make up for its defiance of genres. In 1986, he and Kennedy spent Christmas with his parents at their home in Grafton, a small town on Lake Ontario, four hours west of Montreal.
