Always look at how the supplement itself has performed in clinical trials.

Rules/FAQs

I live 2 blocks from a wonderful natural foods store, and I can spend hours reading the labels on the various supplements-- and it can be enormously confusing.

Supplements

But it's very possible that the tumor, although malignant, would never have been fatal in the first place because they don't always grow to be life-threatening, and you would have been perfectly fine without treatment. How Effective Is Lobster Shell Chitin in Filtering Wastewater Metallic Ions? You can't apply the conclusions about nutrients in the diet, say omega-3s or vitamin D, to the individual supplements. I have worked on supplement investigations where people have died, and it's always a tragedy, but those cases don't compare to the 70 people dying each day-- or the thousands of others who become seriously and dangerously addicted to these medicines.
