8. The Collection of the Qur'an

Is it possible for a Muslim to abide that? He was assassinated while still engaged in his collection.

Tahdzib Syarah Aqidah Ath Thahawiyyah (Syaikh Abu Basheer At Tarthusi)

I heard the Prophet say, 'Learn the Qur'an from four: 'Abd Allah b. Sa'd: The first to collect the Qur'an was Abu Bakr, and it was written by Zayd. This text was according to the reading of Ubayy and Zayd.

Tahdzib Syarah Aqidah Ath Thahawiyyah (Syaikh Abu Basheer At Tarthusi)

It is the best work on the difference of opinions of the scholars concerning the subject.

When they had finished copying the sheets into codices, 'Uthman returned the sheets to Hafsa, and sent to each province one of the codices they had copied, and ordered the burning of all other Qur'anic material, whether in fragmentary manuscripts or full codices. These traditions are evidently contrary to the Qur'an. Even if we were to admit that Abu Bakr was the one who collected the Qur'an during his caliphate, then we should have no doubt that the method of collection described in these traditions is fallacious, and that the collection of the Qur'an was based on its uninterrupted transmission among Muslims.

Sharh Al

This means that the suras of the Qur'an were available to them.
