Han'guk kodae myŏksa yŏn'gu (Book, 2007) [ne-x.uni.rf.gd]

Joo-Doh uses himself as a shield to Soo-Won while Geun-Tae runs to Soo-Jin to stop him. However, because of Hikaru's exceptional playing against Team China, and his persistence to be made first board, Hikaru ends up playing Yongha in the Japan-Korea match. Moments later, Yun-Ho and an old man show up to tell how their businesses have an unexpected inflate of demands, and Soo-Won uses this opportunity for them to leave inconspicuously.

Dokgo Ryong

But as Kyo-Ga himself identifies his brother, his doubt vanishes, though he becomes curious as to how Kyo-Ga distinguishes Tae-Jun. Just as he noted, Soo-Won already fooled their opponents and Geun-Tae rushes to stop him. He and his followers, the Heavenly Destruction Sect, terrorised the entire murim and once ruled much of the land.

Han'guk kŭndae kaesin'gyosa yŏn'gu (Book, 2000) [ne-x.uni.rf.gd]

To add to the tension between Team Japan and Team Korea, during a speech before the tournament begins, Yongha reaffirms the misinterpretation from the interview, claiming it to be true; this time a formal interpreter is there and reluctantly repeats the young man's words.

'Asian Nazi' Hank Yoo, Known for Singing 'Dixie' in Confederate Uniform, Has Been Arrested in Texas

In formal settings, he is seen wearing a white suit with a dark tie. Fighting Style Souji fights with the Kusanagi style of ancient martial arts, a Japanese style of empty handed combat taught only to the Kusanagi. Everything you see today is built on the backs of warriors who have sacrificed opportunities to help give Asians all over the world a bigger voice.

Dokgo Ryong

His nails were long and uncut and he had a generally absent-minded expression on his face.

Han'guk kŭndae kaesin'gyosa yŏn'gu (Book, 2000) [ne-x.uni.rf.gd]

He cannot control other fires that he didn't create. Souji goes to the Kusanagi dojo where Aoi was waiting for him.

Current labor situation in Korea / Korea International Labour Foundation

He understands people's emotions well, this perhaps being because of or the cause of his interest in messing with people.

‘Asian Nazi’ Hank Yoo Faces Up to 45 Years in Jail for Lying About Guns, Pretending to Be a U.S. Citizen

However, when he learns that only a mock battle will take place, he becomes mad and tries to attack Soo-Won. He often forgot things and would constantly re-tell his story to Gang Ryong.
