

Semi-professions and their organization - teachers, nurses, social workers

Free Press - Maintaining the Values of a Profession: Institutional Work and Moral Emotions in the Emergency Department

Occupations traditionally performed by men	Occupations traditionally performed by women
FEATURES: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Technical, professional• Rationality, unemotionality, physical robustness• Professions gendered male to reflect idealized forms of masculinity EXAMPLES: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Managers• Medical doctors• Dentists• Pharmacists• Technicians	FEATURES: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Allied/support roles• Professional identity shaped by stereotypes about women's expected roles as unpaid caregivers in society more broadly• Exclusion from certain medical professions• "Semi-profession" - lack of autonomy and status EXAMPLES: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Nursing and midwifery• Associate/support professionals• Counselling and social work• Administration• Carers• Allied health staff

Description: -

-

Women -- Employment.

Professions, semi-professions and their organization - teachers, nurses, social workers

- semi-professions and their organization - teachers, nurses, social workers

Notes: Includes bibliographical references.

This edition was published in 1969

Filesize: 42.41 MB

Tags: #ATA

Maintaining the Values of a Profession: Institutional Work and Moral Emotions in the Emergency Department

It is unusual among international partnerships, which almost always include adults only, and leave the students at home. Strong guarantees would need to be in place that teachers would not be held accountable for admitting problems and showing an experimental attitude toward their own practice.

Physicians' professional autonomy and their organizational identification with their hospital

Teachers: The Culture and Politics of Work.

Organizational Communication in Social Care Organizations from Hunedoara County, Romania

Preparing Teachers to Collaborate Professionally: The Role of Technology A major problem with the current model of teacher preparation is that it does little to prepare future teachers to take on this responsibility of contributing to the growth of the profession through enhanced intra-professional communication. Verlag Herder Freiburg im Breisgau, 2001. Identity and the extra mile: relationships between organizational identification and organizational citizenship behaviour.

41857043

Norms of collegiality and experimentation: Workplace conditions of school success. THE MONOCHROME SOCIETY Princeton: Princeton University Press, 2001. Sociological Work: Method and Substance.

Physicians' professional autonomy and their organizational identification with their hospital

Professional Capital: Transforming Teaching in Every School.

Related Books

- SOCIAL COSTS OF MONOPOLY AND REGULATIONS
- Nucleolus.
- Sporting firearms
- Xue shan hun
- Pieter Bruegel, the elder